

Hepatitis C is the most common blood borne infection in the US. If left untreated it can lead to serious liver problems such as cirrhosis or liver cancer. Hepatitis C is curable, and the treatment now has very few side effects.

To schedule with a Drexel Medicine Hepatitis C specialist, please contact one of the following:

The Viral Hepatitis Clinic

at the Partnership Comprehensive Care Practice

1427 Vine Street 2nd floor
Philadelphia, PA 19102
215.762.6721

-or-

Hahnemann Hospital Liver Transplant and Center for Liver Disease

216 N Broad Street 5th floor
Philadelphia, PA 19102
215.762.3900

If you would like Patient Navigation services, including assistance with scheduling appointments or more information about subspecialty care please contact:

Carla Coleman, MBA, BSW

Drexel Medicine Hepatitis C Linkage Coordinator
267.507.6599

C a Difference
